

Job title: Events Assistant	Responsible for:	Reporting to: National Events Manager
--	-------------------------	--

ABF The Soldiers' Charity – The National Charity of the British Army

We give a lifetime of support to soldiers and veterans from the British Army, and their immediate families, when they are in need. We make grants to individuals through their Regiments and Corps and support a wide range of specialist charities that sustain the British Army 'family', both at home and around the world.

We take pride in being responsive, making a difference at a critical point in peoples' lives. We have been doing this since 1944, working with veterans of every conflict, and we envisage continuing doing so for the 'long haul' – supporting all future generations of our soldiers and their dependents.

PRIMARY ROLE

To support the National Events Team in maximising income for the charity through its Events Programme.

Outline Specific Tasks

The following activities are intended as a guide to the main responsibilities of the post and are not an exhaustive list of duties and tasks. The post-holder may be required to undertake other duties that are not listed below, at the direction of their manager. The job description may be amended from time to time after consultation with the post holder.

- To assist with the high standard of supporter care established by The Soldiers' Charity events team; including third party events, our bespoke challenge events programme and our special events programme to Army and civilian audiences.
- Support event participants both online and offline through their training and sponsorship, ensuring they feel prepared for the event and are part of a larger team raising money for soldiers, veterans and their families.
- Provide administrative support to the National Events Team. This will include taking and responding to enquiries through to ensuring all sponsorship money (received either on or offline) is correctly batched (entered into the charity database) and thanked.
- To work closely with Directors of Fundraising (National and Regional) to provide support and ensure a consistent level of support to fundraisers taking part in events.
- Support the team's online communities including drafting engaging content and responding to comments.
- Undertake day to day support for event participants, providing them with advice and materials with an aim to increase average fundraising levels.
- Develop knowledge of the challenge events fundraising market and become familiar with all The Soldiers' Charity Events.
- Develop knowledge of online marketing to promote and support The National Events Teams portfolio.
- Potential to take on responsibility for delivering events after a probationary period.
